

DOCUMENT CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Certified: Duplicates of original documents, certified as exact reproductions, usually by the officer responsible for issuing or keeping the original, or by a solicitor, notary public, justice of the peace or any other person authorised to take a statutory declaration. A certified copy should carry a certificate, stamp or seal, and the certifier's signature.

If you send us a document that is not in English or Bahasa Malaysia in support of your application, this document must be accompanied by a full translation into English that can be independently verified by EMGS.

The original translation must contain:

- a) confirmation from the translator or translation company that it is an accurate translation of the original document;
- b) the date of the translation;
- c) the full name and signature of the translator or of an authorised official of the translation company; and the translator or translation company's contact details.
